

SOCIETY OF ABIDANCE IN TRUTH RETREATS FOR 2014

The orientation with which one approaches a spiritual retreat at the SAT Temple is very important. It influences what is absorbed and determines what is experienced. In preparation for the retreat, be certain to consider the importance of these aspects of your approach:

1. Ardent practice of or sincere interest in the teachings of Sri Ramana Maharshi and Advaita Vedanta.
2. An understanding of the spiritual value of this Jnana (Knowledge) and the sacred opportunity to receive upadesa (spiritual instruction).
3. A comprehension that there is profound depth revealed in silent meditation.
4. Bhakti (devotion), humility, and a keen awareness of Grace.
5. Perception of the sacredness of this Siva Temple consecrated to Self-Knowledge and naturally conducting oneself within it accordingly.
6. Recognition of the spirit and essentialness of danam (generous giving) and arpanam (offering).
7. The earnest desire for the Realization of Brahman, the true Self.

Please indicate which retreat you wish to attend, fill in the appropriate information, and return this application to the SAT Temple no later than the end-of-sign-up dates indicated. Please print.
