Retreat costs are for the retreats themselves. For lodging at SAT, contact the SAT office for availability. SAT members may obtain lodging at SAT at no cost. SAT can also supply you with a list of possible local accommodations.

Vegetarian meals are provided during the retreats. For three-day retreats, lunch and dinner are served on Friday, three meals are served on Saturday, and two meals are served on Sunday. For five-day retreats, lunch and dinner the first day, three meals each day thereafter, and two meals on the final day are served. SAT does not provide special meals for those with unique dietary concerns.

SAT promotes an approach to spirituality that emphasizes seeing all beings as the Self. If you would like to join in this spirit by helping us to provide scholarships to sponsor seekers who are less financially fortunate to attend this retreat, please write in the amount you are donating for scholarships here: _____
